

College of Bioresources and Agriculture, National Taiwan University

LIOU GU-SYONG Student Fellowship Regulations

Approved at the 232th Meeting of the CBA-NTU Committee Jun. 20, 2011

Approved at the 260th Meeting of the CBA-NTU Committee Oct. 07, 2019

Approved at the 269th Meeting of the CBA-NTU Committee Dec. 20, 2021

1. The fellowship is funded by Mr. LIOU GU-SYONG (劉古雄先生) to encourage students to participate in academic research and partnerships.
2. Eligibility: students in their second year or above of undergraduate or graduate school in the CBA with outstanding academic records.
3. General Information:
 - (1) Excellent Research Scholarships: two awards of NT $100,000 are to recognize students with excellent research outputs.
 - (2) Merit Scholarships: eight awards of NT $50,000 are to recognize students with outstanding academic records, and preference will go to students from low- and middle-income families, poor families, or those with sudden family changes.
4. Application procedures:
 - (1) Application Deadlines: After the start of the first semester of each year, students should follow the announcement of the CBA and submit the application documents to the College.
 - (2) Required documents:
 - Excellent Research Scholarships: the application form, transcripts, a cover letter, a research statement, and two recommendation letters.

- Merit Scholarships: the application form, transcripts, a cover letter, two recommendation letters, and proof of financial difficulty.
5. Scholarship amount:
- Excellent Research Scholarships 100,000 yuan each
 - Merit Scholarships 50,000 yuan each.
6. Review:
- Before the end of the school year, the review committee will be convened to review each application. There are 5 committee members. The committee members are teachers at the university.
 - Excellent Research Scholarships In addition to appraisal of the applicant's academic performance, recommendation letters, and autobiography, the academic merit of the overall research results will be judged on originality, continuity, and contribution.
 - Merit Scholarships In addition to appraisal of the applicant's academic performance, recommendation letters, and autobiography, the family conditions and applicant's economic needs for completing academic studies will be considered.
 - The committee members can set their own scoring items and scale
7. Awards: Public awarding ceremony at a CBA academic meeting or the university's scholarship awards ceremony.
8. This regulation has been adopted by the CBA Council, effective from the approved date.